

TTUHSC EL PASO, PAUL L. FOSTER SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
2017 RESIDENCY MATCH

The Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso, Paul L. Foster School of Medicine, Class of 2017 has had a successful match process through the National Residency Match Program (NRMP). The NRMP oversees a computerized process that links choices of graduating medical students with preferences of Residency Program Directors. Results were announced on “Match Day,” March 17, 2017.

Overall, 85 senior medical students at TTUHSC El Paso, Paul L. Foster SOM were successful in matching to excellent graduate medical education positions. Of them, 51% are remaining in Texas and 60% have matched to Primary Care (Family Medicine, Internal Medicine, Pediatrics or Obstetrics-Gynecology). Three students will begin their service to our country through the military match. “I am very pleased with all of our seniors. This fifth class continues to be excellent role models for future graduates and we are proud to have them represent Paul L. Foster School of Medicine to residency programs in Texas and across the country.” said Kathryn Horn, M.D., Associate Dean for Student Affairs.
