When Innovation Is Incorporated in Research: What To Do To Make Sure to Comply With Research Ethics!

Presented by:

Deborah J. Clegg, Ph.D.
Vice President for Research
Professor, Internal Medicine
Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso
El Paso, Texas

Objectives: Upon completion of this session, the participant should be able to:

- Know what the 'regulatory ethics paradigm' (REP) is and how it pertains to research.
- Know what to do if you are using innovative or untried methodologies in your clinical research and how to make sure the study is conducted according to approved scientific research methodologies.
- Determine when IRB is required to review the protocol.
- Discuss the sensitivity issues associated with ethics and how to gain and retain the public trust.

Accreditation: The Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso Paul L. Foster School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.
