Basics of Deaf Cultural Competence in Mental Health

Presented by:
Ashley Heidebrecht, LMSW
Assistant Professor
Sign Language and Interpreter Preparation Program
El Paso Community College
El Paso, Texas

Objectives: Upon completion of this session, the participant should be able to:
• Review the American Deaf Culture and American Sign Language.
• Identify common mental health disparities in the Deaf population.
• Outline basic ways to make your practice more inclusive of the Deaf population.

Accreditation: The Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso Paul L. Foster School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation: The Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso Paul L. Foster School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Ethics and Professional Responsibility: This activity provides 1 CME credit toward the annual requirement of the Texas Medical Board for continuing medical education credit in medical ethics or professional responsibility.

To claim CME credit, participants must log on using their full name and remain logged on for a minimum of 75%, if not the entirety of the CME activity. Attendance logs with entry and exit time stamps will be used to validate attendance requirements.

It is the policy and practice of the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso Paul L. Foster School of Medicine Office of Continuing Medical Education (CME) to resolve all potential conflicts of interest prior to the activity.
