The Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Global Health is excited to introduce the virtual Multicultural Well-Being Series. These cultural presentations are brought to you by some of our TTUHSC El Paso family and community members. A different presentation will be available via Webex throughout the months of May and June. Click on each of the dates above to register and join us in learning about the various cultural dances and exercises, all while working out from home.